Wedding Videography

Professional Videographer

Aloha! My name is Wesley Larsen. I was raised in Hawaii, and I have been filmmaking and editing for the past 12 years. I've worked hard to gain recognition and grow my skills through filming. Working alongside the best in the wedding industry, I've mastered my craft and gained experience crucial for high-class wedding videography. With my expertise, I can make your magic day come to life through film.

All our products are in house, from the film making to the post production process. This is an advantage for specific details you may want to showcase or a certain story you desire to tell. I pride myself on being accessible throughout the whole production process, in order to create a memorable and pleasant experience.

Two-Hour Package

Our smallest package provides two hours of footage that include your choice of coverage; From the moments of getting ready and heading to the ceremony, to beautiful “after-ceremony” shots. It’s a great option for those who are having intimate weddings or elopements. Although a smaller package, your wedding video will be a lovely capture of your complete wedding-day story.

$2,000

Four-Hour Package

Our four-hour package has been a popular option for smaller weddings. It’s best for those who want to include more coverage of their special day. This package gives us the time to capture little details, along with being able to head to a remote location for extra shots - if that is something that you’d want. An additional two hours will ensure that we don’t miss any important moments or any extra delights.

$3,500

Six-Hour Package

Our most popular package for a wedding video is our six-hour option. A great choice for large wedding parties. If you are planning to have more than 30 guests, then we will provide an additional camera operator to make sure we do not miss a thing. We arrive at the location an hour before the event in order to set up. We will also shoot any special preparations before the wedding begins. Any coverage from the bride and groom getting ready to reading a special love note; we will capture all your special moments.
